

This legislation is an over reaction. It will unnecessarily penalize thousands of citizens, businesses and pilots. If the same type of legislation was introduced to prevent equally potential terrorist vehicles such as cars, vans and trucks imagine the crippling effect on the area. There must be a better way. We give up our freedoms by over reacting—they win another victory.